Miami Diaper Bank – Father’s Day Partnerships
June 12th - 18th

1 in 3 Americans have had to choose between diapers and other basic needs like food.

Miami Diaper Bank partners with local businesses for Father’s day week.

MIAMI, FLORIDA, June 2017 – Many people are unaware that government assistance programs—such as food stamps and WIC—do not provide funding for diapers, a basic necessity for babies. There are currently 5.3 million infants and toddlers living in low-income families, many of whom face a daily struggle to secure a necessary supply of diapers. Miami Diaper Bank is a nonprofit organization that collects, stores, and distributes free diapers to homeless shelters, pantries, family services agencies and faith-based organizations and for the first year in we are taking part in special Father’s Day Partnerships.

This Father’s Day we intended to draw attention to the current Diaper need issues and prompt individuals, businesses and organizations to take action and help the community. This year we are happy to announce our partnerships with:

Miami Marlins
Pilathon Miami
Club X Miami
Vibe Class Gym
Rebook Crossfit Miami Beach and
Lil Star Sports

We encourage you to go out and participate by joining the Miami Diaper Bank and its partners to raise awareness and much needed diapers for all of South Florida, both Dade and Broward County. For more details about our partnerships, offers and sale details, visit our website www.miamidiaperbank.com/get-involved/

Don’t forget you can also participate by hosting your own diaper drive, fundraiser, meet-and-greet, use #MDBCares in social media or make a monetary donation.
